
Request is made for approval of the following resolution:

, the College has engaged in a $85 million Capital Project to construct a new 130,000 sq. ft. building, the Applied Technology Education Center (ATEC); and

, the project will support the College's growing programs within STEM, including: automotive technology services, electrical construction and maintenance, heating/air conditioning/refrigeration technical services, and welding; and

Kristi LaChar, Counselor,
EOC Instructional Services,

